BULLETIN of the Connecticut Historical Society

Volume 7 Hartford, July, 1941 Number 4

Before the largest audience of the year, Nelson R. Burr, Ph.D., of West Hartford, read a paper at the April meeting entitled: "The Quakers in Connecticut: A little known phase of our history." Dr. Burr traced the various Quaker groups in the state up to the present. He closed with an account of the two existing meetings, one in Hartford and one in New Haven. Members of these two groups were among those present.

"The Life and Public Services of Thomas Welles, Fourth Governor of Connecticut," was read at the May meeting by Edwin Stanley Welles of Newington, a descendant of the governor. Mr. Welles commenced with a sketch of the English background of the family and then gave a detailed account of the various offices held by Thomas Welles in Connecticut.

The President's address, Treasurer's report and the report of the Librarian were presented at the Annual Meeting of the Society held on May twentieth. The previous officers were re-elected with the exception of the Library Committee; Mr. Bates replacing Mr. Burpee.

From the estate of Miss Lucy Pratt Mitchell of Granby, we have received a highboy that formerly belonged to her great-great grandfather, Judge Stephen Mix Mitchell. It is of cherry, is elaborately carved and probably dates from 1750-1775.

Through the generosity of Vice-President Newton C. Brainard and Charles L. Taylor, our Wethersfield sunflower chest has been restored to its original condition. The red and black paint is believed to duplicate in color and position the original paint of which traces were found.

Several gifts of manuscript genealogies have recently augmented our collections. Mr. Homer W. Brainard has presented us the results of twenty-five years of research on the Gilbert family. Along with other supplementary material, we now have his notes on the Brace, Crow, Marble, Parish, Scudder, Sexton and Shaw families.

Mr. Jacobus gave us notes on New Haven families. Names from M to Z published in "Families in Ancient New Haven" are now filed as a collection.

Rev. Elisha Cushman's Record

The following marriages are a portion of the records kept by the Rev. Elisha Cushman, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hartford, from 1813 to 1825. In 1825 he removed to Philadelphia, where entries are found into 1829. They then are continued in Fairfield, Connecticut, from September, 1829 through 1830. He was pastor at New Haven for about three years, after which he removed to Plymouth, Massachusetts where the last entry is dated December 17, 1837. He died in Hartford, October 26, 1838.

Commencing in 1840, the records are continued by the son, Rev. Elisha Cushman, and contain marriages from Willington, Hartford, New Britain and Deep River until 1863.
